“Ken has been a valued member of both our Board of Directors and the Eyenovia family since 2018, contributing to our strategy and supporting our activities leading up to our planned New Drug Application (NDA) submission of our first product, Mydcombi,” said Michael Rowe, Chief Executive Officer of Eyenovia. “We are sorry to see Ken leave the board, but we are encouraged that he will remain available to us for advice and consultation in the future.”

“Ken has been an invaluable voice on our Board, and it is due in part to his guidance and insights that we are on the cusp of having our first approved commercial product,” stated Dr. Sean Ianchulev, Chairman of the Board. “We extend our gratitude and best wishes to Ken in his retirement.”

Mr. Lee was a member of Eyenovia’s Nominating and Corporate Governance, Audit and Compensation Committees. His committee obligations have been assumed by remaining Board members.
